

Global thinking,
interdisciplinary research:
the spirit of Leibniz!

We strive for universality, diversity and interdisciplinarity. With more than 30,000 students, three Clusters of Excellence, 5,000 members of staff, over 150 institutes and an outstanding infrastructure, Leibniz University Hannover offers an innovative environment for top-level education and research in a comprehensive range of subjects.

The Faculty of Economics and Management invites applications for the following position of Salary Scale W3 NBes0 to be appointed at the earliest possible date:

University Professorship (m/f/d) in Financial Markets and Accounting

The Position

- represents the research area Financial Markets and Accounting
- studies the relationship between accounting information and price formation and price development on financial markets
- teaches in our programs B.Sc. Business and Economics and M.Sc. Business and Economics, especially in the master areas „Finance, Banking and Insurance“ and “Accounting, Taxation and Public Finance”
- contributes to the faculty's research clusters „Uncertainty“, „Finance“ and “Accounting & Taxation” and participates in joint applications for third party funding

Your Profile

Candidates must hold a PhD, and their qualifications are expected to merit the rank of tenured full professor. Past and present research should include financial markets and accounting. Successful candidates will show a strong record of research in leading international journals and outstanding abilities for teaching and research funds raising, especially DFG research funds. Candidates will strongly contribute to one of the faculty's research foci and actively contribute to applying for joint research funding. Teaching in German and English at bachelor, master, and PhD levels is required. In teaching, the professorship is part of the Master's areas “Finance, Banking and Insurance” and “Accounting, Taxation and Public Finance”. The applicant should have an appropriate teaching profile.

What we can offer you

LUH offers excellent working conditions in a vibrant scientific community combined with an exceptional standard of living in a modern city surrounded by nature. In addition, LUH provides numerous opportunities for further education and training as well as many services to support families. The Dual Career Service at LUH is aimed at the partners of newly-appointed professors and provides support with career perspectives in Hannover and the surrounding region. As a central point of contact for international researchers, the Welcome Centre provides information on non-academic queries concerning your stay in Hannover.

General duties and employment requirements are specified in the Lower Saxony Higher Education Act (NHG). For detailed information on employment requirements, please contact the Appointment Matters department.

Leibniz University Hannover promotes equal opportunities, diversity and a balance between work and family life (Equal Opportunities Office). For this reason, female researchers are particularly encouraged to apply. Furthermore, we welcome applications from international researchers. Preference will be given to equally-qualified applicants with disabilities (Representative for employees with disabilities). Upon request, part-time employment is possible.

Candidates aged 50 or over at the intended time of appointment who do not already have civil servant status in Germany will be employed as regular members of staff.

For further information, please contact Prof. Dr. Marcel Prokopczuk (Tel.: +49 511 762-5639, Email: prokopczuk@fcm.uni-hannover.de).

Please submit your application by October 12th, 2022 exclusively via the appointment portal of Leibniz University Hannover at:

<https://berufungen.uni-hannover.de>

Information on the collection of personal data according to article 13 GDPR can be found at <https://www.uni-hannover.de/en/datenschutzhinweis-bewerbungen/>.