

Hannover International Summer School of Economics and Management (HISSEMA)

15 June – 17 July 2026

The Faculty of Economics and Management of the Leibniz University Hannover invites local and international students to its Summer School!

Discover Hannover, a vibrant mid-sized city in the north of Germany, located close to Berlin and Hamburg and participate in an interesting course program in a dynamic international atmosphere!

Program

- 15 June -17 July 2026
- Fee: to be requested (incl. excursion, accommodation etc.)
- Excursion to Berlin
- Additional intercultural events
- Certificates for participation
- Please check our website for additional information

Courses

- 3 courses taking place on the campus of the Leibniz University (in English):
- International Management and Economics
 - The German Economy and European Union
 - German Business, Culture and Language Class
- 5 ECTS/course = 15 credits in total (credit recognition depends on your home university)

Registration

- Who can apply?
- Students enrolled at partner universities
 - At least two years of academic studies in business administration or economics
- How to apply?
- Send the application form and the requested documents to: guest@wiwi.uni-hannover.de

Deadline: March 10th, 2026